HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Lindon Williams and his lovely wife, Evelyn, are among the leading citizens of Houston;

WHEREAS, The sudden affinity of the Williams for this booming city of the Gulf Coast Area began some years ago and was intensified on the specific date of March 27, 1969; a search of general information available, including vital statistics in Harris County, reveals that on that identical date a baby boy was born in Houston, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Williams, and the proud mother of the infant is the former Evelyn Burkett of Atlanta, Georgia; and

WHEREAS, When he was weighed in at Bayshore Hospital, little Lindon Miriam Williams, II, tipped the scales at 6 pounds and 1 ounce, had dark black hair and brilliant blue eyes; weighing-in time was 10:56 a.m. of that last Thursday morning in March, 1969; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the House of Representatives of the 61st Legislature, ~~61st Session~~, recognize Mrs. Frances Burkett and Mrs. Herman Mangham as the proud grandmothers of their new grandson and, of course, ~~the~~ parents of Gerald and Lindon Williams, receive a just share of these felicitations; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Texas congratulate the Williams, Burketts, and Manghams on great happiness which has come to them in the person of little Lindon Miriam Williams, II; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be prepared for Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Williams, Mrs. Frances Burkett, and Mrs. Herman Mangham as official recognition of their happiness and good fortune.
